

Figure S3 – Determination of optimal cluster threshold θ for North America during January – March 2014. Vertical axis is the sum of averaged distance $E(\theta)$ as a function of the number of clusters (blue).