

Figure S15 – Determination of optimal cluster threshold  $\theta$  for South America during January – March 2014. Vertical axis is the sum of averaged distance  $E(\theta)$  as a function of the number of clusters (blue).