Fairness

In the following 6 questions, we will present you word bubbles that describe the moral concept of fairness.

Fairness is defined as the ethic of justice, including the notions of cooperation and trustworthiness. Fairness expresses the need for reciprocal altruism which leads society members to cooperate with each other in order to assure the success and continuation of the society.