

Interview Protocol: Explore, Curate, Donate Data

Expected duration: 45 min

To be conducted with potential contributors up to a day after they have completed the process on the data donation platform, which includes deciding not to donate their data, and with collaborators and co-creators a few days after they have donated their data.

Introduction

1. Can you tell me a little bit about your daily routine as an athlete?
2. What motivated you to participate in this study?
3. What do you expect from donating your data to this study?
4. Can you walk me through your experience requesting a copy of your data?

Ask a subset of the following questions:

- A. What feelings or emotions did you have through this experience?
- B. What was the biggest challenge for you?

Explore, Curate, and Donate the Data

Explore the Data

1. What did you recognize when seeing your data in this way?
2. Do you think exploring your data is valuable?
3. Do you have any questions about your data?

Curate the Data

1. Did you consider removing any (type of) data? If so, why?
2. What factors did you consider when deciding what data to donate and for how long?

Donate the Data

1. What factors did you consider when deciding how to participate?
2. How do you expect to benefit from your participation?

Understand the Donated Data

1. What types of data did you donate?
2. What was the start date of the data you donated?
3. How does your data relate to your daily routine as an athlete?

Wrap-Up

1. Is there anything else you would like to add?
2. Would you like to continue your participation?
3. Do you have any questions?
