

Data underlying research paper “Exploring potential contributions of open data intermediaries” by Ashraf Shaharudin, Bastiaan van Loenen, and Marijn Janssen from Delft University of Technology (TU Delft), the Netherlands

This file is item #2 of the folder that contains data underlying the research paper “Exploring potential contributions of open data intermediaries” (working title). It consists of:

1. Tentative interview questions
2. Informed consent form template (verbal interview & written interview)
3. De-identified interview transcripts
4. Coding results

Note about the informed consent form:

We sent the informed consent form to every interviewee in advance and requested them to return it to us before the interview.

STUDY INFORMATION
Project Title	Business models of open data intermediaries towards a sustainable open data ecosystem
Project Description	This research is being conducted by Ahmad Ashraf Bin Ahmad Shaharudin (Ashraf Shaharudin) for his doctoral project at Delft University of Technology (TU Delft), the Netherlands. This project receives funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 research and innovation program under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 955569 – Towards a Sustainable Open Data ECOSystem (ODECO). This project consists of Ashraf Shaharudin as the principal investigator and Bastiaan van Loenen and Marijn Janssen as the supervisors. All three researchers are from TU Delft. The purpose of this project is to understand the challenges and impacts of open data intermediaries and develop their business models for a sustainable open data ecosystem.
Procedures	You will participate in an interview lasting approximately 45-60 minutes. You will be asked questions about your perspectives on business models, challenges, and impacts of open data intermediaries. This interview will be recorded.
Potential Risks and Discomforts	There are no obvious physical, legal or economic risks associated with participating in this study. You do not have to answer any questions you do not wish to answer. Your participation is voluntary and you are free to discontinue your participation at any time.
Privacy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No personally identifiable information will be reported in any research product (i.e. academic papers and dissertation) or will be shared with anyone outside the project. • Personally identifiable information collected for this interview, which are name and email address, will be used solely for administrative purposes and will be destroyed as soon as this project ends. In interim, the data will be stored in TU Delft project storage with access restricted to project members. • The text transcript of this interview will be anonymous. • The recording of this interview will be destroyed as soon as this project ends. In interim, the recording will be stored in TU Delft project storage with access limited to project members. • Findings from this interview will be presented in aggregated or summarized forms in the research product. However, some transcribed segments of the interview may be directly quoted of which in this case, pseudonyms will be used.

Right to Withdraw and Questions	Your participation in this research is completely voluntary. You may choose not to take part at all. You may stop participating at any time. If you decide to stop taking part in the study, or if you have questions, concerns, or complaints please contact the primary investigator: Ashraf Shaharudin a.a.binahmadshaharudin@tudelft.nl
