Workshops: Software Carpentries

This year the first workshop took place at the end of March with 30 available places which were reserved within 24 hours and a waiting list of 70 people!

"I like that you teach the very basics. This course helps me with my starting of programming learning"

"I need a follow-up course...how to keep going? Can a series of courses be offered at Delft?"

"Surprisingly not boring at all! Learned a lot! Great instructors and helpers!"

Depositor: Baiba Pudane

“It is not yet a common practice in my field to publish data. Some researchers publish the program code, for example, on their personal website...An advantage of using the 4TU.ResearchData archive is that it ensures a long-term storage and availability of the data (15 years) unlike a normal website.”
