

GeoTiffs_Inundation_Frequency_Change_Maps

Introductory information

Each file shows the pixel by pixel significant yearly change in inundation frequency of a specific tidal basin and year. The colored results are shown in Figure 5 of the associated publication.

Methodological information

The method to generate inundation frequency trends from satellite imagery is described in detail in the method section of the associated publication.