

The data should be read as follows.

In the column “beads no.” we put the total number of ejected particles, see the picture below.

In the column “distance” there is a travel distance, measured for each ejected particle in a given splash.

Overall there are data from 48 splash experiments.

